

Online marketing strategies for Startup's

1. Social Media Marketing

Definition:

Social Media Marketing involves using platforms like Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, TikTok, and LinkedIn to promote your business, interact with your audience, and build brand awareness. It focuses on visual storytelling, content sharing, and two-way communication.

Example: Cheezious

Cheezious, a popular Pakistani fast-food chain, effectively uses Instagram and TikTok to post mouth-watering food images, customer reaction videos, and memes. They respond to comments, run polls, and share user-generated content.

This makes customers feel seen and heard, building a community around their brand and encouraging regular interaction.

2. Content Marketingfor

Definition:

Content Marketing is the strategic creation and distribution of valuable, relevant content such as blogs, videos, infographics, podcasts, etc., to attract and retain a clearly defined audience. The goal is to educate, inform, or entertain while subtly promoting your brand.

Example: Airlift

Before pivoting, Airlift created blogs and videos explaining how their ride-hailing and delivery services worked. They compared their service to traditional transport and answered common questions.

By providing useful content, they engaged curious customers, built trust, and positioned themselves as a smart and efficient alternative.

3. Influencer Marketing

Definition:

Influencer Marketing involves partnering with popular social media personalities or niche content creators to promote your product or service. Influencers already have the trust and attention of a target audience, which makes their recommendations powerful.

Example: Bagallery

Bagallery collaborates with local influencers and beauty bloggers to review skincare products, announce sales, and host live unboxing sessions.

These influencers engage their followers with discount codes, giveaways, and “favorites” lists—leading to high follower engagement and conversions for Bagallery.

4. Email Marketing

Definition:

Email Marketing is the practice of sending targeted emails to a list of subscribers. These emails can include promotions, updates, tips, or personalized offers. It is a cost-effective way to nurture customer relationships and drive repeat business.

Example: Bykea

Bykea sends email updates to users about service availability, loyalty rewards, or region-specific discounts. They also use emails to re-engage inactive users with incentives.

Because the messages are personalized and timely, users are more likely to open, click, and return to the app.

5. Search Engine Optimization (SEO) & Google Ads

Definition:

SEO is the process of optimizing your website so it appears higher in search engine results (organically). Google Ads, on the other hand, are paid listings that appear when people search for relevant keywords. Both aim to increase visibility and drive traffic.

Example: Daraz.pk

Daraz invests in both SEO (to rank high organically for products) and Google Ads (to promote deals). When customers search “buy phone online in Pakistan,” Daraz often appears at the top. This high visibility drives clicks, trust, and purchases, especially during campaigns like the 11.11 sale.
